LOVE, NO COUNTRY

By Vanessa Ackerman

Directed by Patrick Morris

It's an open secret that Sarah's grandmother was in Stalin's gulag. It's always there, in the silences between Sarah and her mother, Irina. In the stories never shared.

Sarah's search for the truth leads her on an odyssey through fact, fiction and false hopes.

But suddenly everyone wants a piece of it and they're not letting go: Irina, desperate to bury the ghosts she harbours. Dan, the frustrated researcher, spying a career boost. The film director seeing a box office success.

*“I forget and forget
and forget, the exact words, the thread, so delicate.”*

Love, No Country, a debut play by Vanessa Ackerman, was nurtured through Menagerie's Development Programme and this is the premiere production. It is a powerful exploration of our relationship with history: when there are no longer any eyewitnesses, who has the right to tell stories of the past?

Fri 16th: 7pm (80 minutes)

Sun 18th: 8pm (80 minutes)

Venue: J2 | Tickets: £10/£9

Suitable for age: 14+

DOUBLE FEATURE:

UNDER THE WEATHER

A new film by Steve Waters

Directed by Paul Bourne

Featuring Patrick Morris

High Pressure.

Storm Warnings.

Cold Front.

Jeremy's got his day-time weatherman slot, but the temperature is rising and viewing figures are dropping... the forecast is, well, unseasonable at best.

Originally conceived as a stage play for Hotbed 2020, Under the Weather re-emerges as a short film.

About Jeremy.

About the weather.

Followed by

A LIFE IN 16 FILMS... HOW CINEMA MADE A PLAYWRIGHT

by Steve Waters

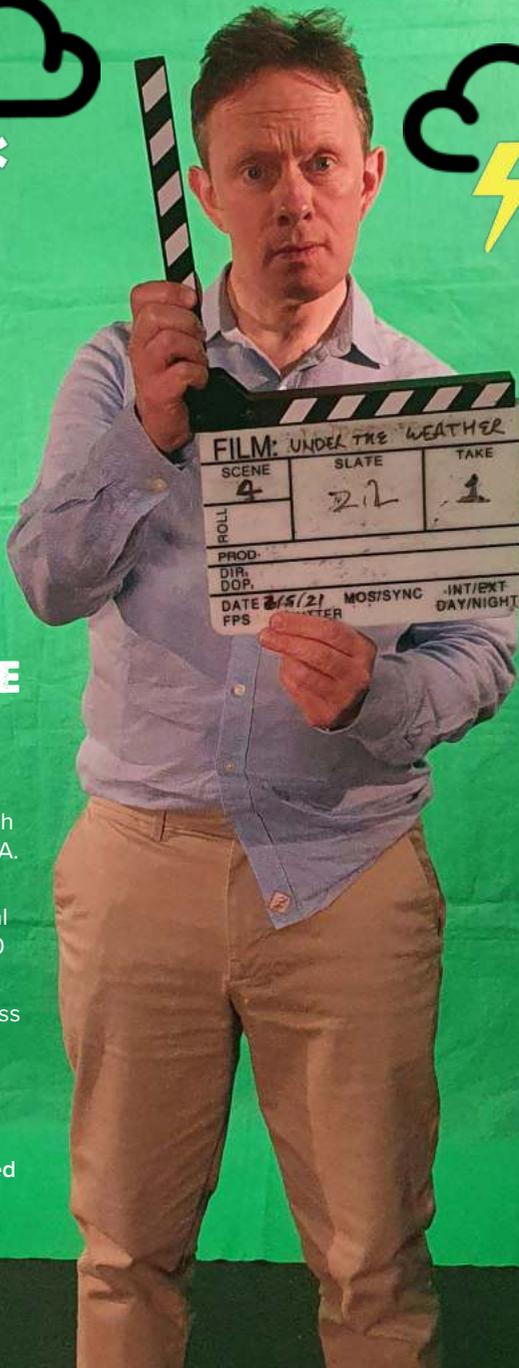

Book launch with Steve Waters and Sarah Barrow, Professor of Film and Media, UEA.

Through the the lens of cinema, A Life in 16 Films... provides a cultural and political snapshot of life in Britain over the last 50 years.

Steve is joined by Sarah Barrow to discuss his new book and film/stage writing and performance.

Sat 17th: 4.45pm (70 minutes)

DEBUT PLAYS BY MENAGERIE YOUNG WRITERS

WORKSHOP PERFORMANCES:

FALLIBLE

By Magdalene Bird

Directed by Caroline Rippin

Leelah is devoted to her kelp farm and her nephew Oz. Sasha is devoted to Leelah. Oz is lost in grief and the world of the kelp people.

With a storm approaching and no radio signal, this unlikely trio find themselves forced to reassess their own priorities. What is stronger – love for the world or love for another?

A new play exploring our sense of responsibility to the natural world and the comfort to be found in things bigger and more powerful than ourselves.

Sat 17th: 7.30pm (45 minutes)

Sun 18th: 2.00pm (45 minutes)

Venue: J2 | Tickets: £6/£5

PHENOMENON

By Martha Loader

Directed by Paul Bourne

What would you do if your mother was the most hated woman in Britain?

Agnes has gone viral. Fuelled by likes and faceless followers on social media, she is on a crusade – against the government, the mainstream media and the so-called snowflake generation. Even her children can't avoid coming under fire.

When her own son tries to stop her, sparks fly – but will family ties prove more important than ideas? Or will this turn into fully-fledged intergenerational war?

Saturday 17th: 3.30pm (45 minutes)

Sunday 18th: 5.00pm (45 minutes)

Venue: J2 | Tickets: £6/£5

FINEST

By Lucille Rococoa

Produced by Fly No Filter

Inspired by real events, Finest is a scripted dance-theatre solo exploring what might happen when what you thought defined you, is taken away.

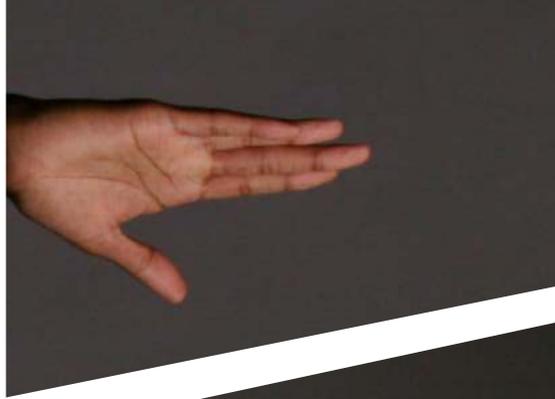

Everyone knows Abel, he's the dancer, the one that can do the moonwalk. Loyal since-ever to the Bridge, Abel has never been on a plane – his Jamaican DNA has never left England. After every night out, he returns to his ground floor flat, kebab in hand.

But Abel has a condition, a disorder of the red blood cells.

Under his damp, faded Michael Jackson T-shirt, Abel's left shoulder is crumbling away. Abel has sickle cell. Everyone knows Abel.

Sun 18th: 3.30pm (55 minutes)

Venue: J3 | Tickets: £8/£7

WHAT IF WE ARE ALL DEAD

By Lucille Rococoa

Produced by Fly No Filter

A work in progress performance

15th October, 1987. A depression develops over Bay of Biscay, while in Ramsey Forty Foot, 11-year-old Jimmy wrestles with his Thundercats duvet. Through monologue and movement, we revisit the night of The Great Storm to explore life and confront the silent certainty of death.

Performed by James Therobot

Designed by Ben Swift

Sun 18th: 1.00pm

(60 minutes including discussion)

Venue: J3 | Tickets: £4/£3

SHADES OF PEMBERLEY: BLACK GIRLS LOVE JANE AUSTEN TOO

By Elizabeth Moynihan with Sybille Wehrli

Produced by Éala Productions

Shades of Pemberley is inspired by memories of the performer's teenage years, and her own personal journey from Cameroon to Strasbourg via the suburbs of Paris. The young Blanche's loneliness finds an outlet in an unlikely obsession with Jane Austen.

Blanche's imagination takes her to the cossetted, corseted world of Georgian England. Gossip, romantic disappointments, and the triumphs of dispossessed young gentlewomen resonate deeply with the disaffected Blanche. Her own isolation finds comfort in stories of a time when young women, rich or poor, had little agency of their own.

Performed by Sybille Wehrli
Directed by Clara Onyemere
Original score by Fergus Cahillane

Fri 16th: 6pm & 8.30pm (45 minutes)

Venue: J3 | Tickets: £8/£7

Suitable for age: 14+

SPLIT.7

Written and performed by James Bloor

Eight conversations are "split" apart.

Each time a person reaches out to the other, they expose the fragility of their communication.

Will they be understood?

Will they even be heard?

A dark comedy that explores connection and disconnection.

Sat 17th: 8.30pm (55 minutes)

Venue: J3 | Tickets: £8/£7

Suitable for age: 14+

"A singular voice, equally disconcerting and powerful."

Vogue

I, AMDRAM

Written and performed by Hannah Maxwell

“89 years. 172 different productions. I am the first female member of my family to not appear in a Thalians show for a reason other than pregnancy.”

Amateur dramatics. The hidden history of many a performance artist.

From four generations of leading ladies comes one queer Londoner, sharing a story of return and reconciliation – with her hometown, cultural inheritance and secret love of musical theatre.

Step-ball-changing between suburb and city, I, AmDram minds the gap between the identities we assert and the worlds we leave.

Sun 18th: 6.30pm (65 minutes)

Venue: J3 | Tickets: £8/£7

Suitable for age: 12+

HERE I AM!

Developed by Inna Cebotari & Sava Cebotari

As told by Sava Cebotari

My name is Sava. I am an artist. I am a composer, writer, producer and inventor. I am Autistic.

I was raised in the Soviet Union.

I am in London now, with my family. In a pandemic. I arrived in July 2020 from Chisinau in Moldova. For the opportunity.

Since I came here I've worked on construction sites. I produce hammer drill sounds in a space where I'm not the only one doing this... a hammer drill score that evokes emotions, thoughts and messages that I can only imagine.

I am Autistic. I am an Artist. Here I Am!

I want to ask you some questions...

Sat 17th: 6pm

(60 minutes including discussion)

Venue: J3 | Tickets: £5/£4
