Reach For The Skies

A Workshop

With Chris Dobrowolski

Ruskin Gallery, Cambridge

- 16th March 17.30 - 20.00 (preview, by invitation only)
- 25th March 14.00 - 16.00 (open to all, must be booked)

Chris Dobrowolski is a driven man. In this unique 'performance workshop' he uses his art to challenge us on how we view success and failure, innovation and personal development, as well as offering new ideas on goal-setting, motivation, risk-taking, enterprise and entrepreneurship.

Hear Chris' stories and see footage of his incredible journeys as part of a series of events on Enterprise and Entrepreneurship at Anglia Ruskin University. For these workshops, Chris will be joined by Menagerie's Artistic Director Paul Bourne, as well as guest Entrepreneurs and members of the Ashcroft International Business School.

The events (including Q & A) are two hours in length and open to all students and staff but must be pre-booked.

Skyscape/Escape

An Exhibition

By Chris Dobrowolski

Ruskin Gallery
Cambridge

16 - 25 March
9am - 5pm*

In an attempt to fulfil his Inner Need and to articulate the frustrations and challenges of his art education (in Hull) and the art world (in general), Chris Dobrowolski has built a series of extraordinary vehicles in which to escape from it all.

His journeys have become a series of rites of passage and the beginning of countless stories he has re-told all over the world. The most infamous of his escape attempts – in an aeroplane made out of tea-chests and newspaper, is captured in this exhibit Skyscape/Escape.

Except on 17, 24 and 25 March when it is open from 9am - 1pm.*
